

I have owned Golden Retrievers since 1970. First awarded CC's in 1992 since then have judged extensively over Europe, Scandinavia, Russia, Australia and New Zealand. I had the honour of judging Crufts in 2013. I have bred over 20 UK CC winners and many more overseas, most of them taking their full titles, and two of them being UK Championship Gundog Group winners. I also work my dogs during the shooting season and have run two of them in Field Trials. I was made a member of the Royal Kennel Club in 1986 and as well as the time I spent on the Southern Golden Retriever Society committee, other canine involvements include many years with the Canine Supporters Charity where I held the position of Chairman for some years.
